3. The Postal Service insures "nonnegotiable documents" (as defined by postal indemnity regulations) against loss, damage, or missing contents up to $100 per mailpiece for document reconstruction, subject to additional limitations for multiple pieces lost or damaged in a single catastrophic occurrence. Document reconstruction insurance provides reimbursement for the reasonable costs incurred in reconstructing duplicates of nonnegotiable documents mailed. Document reconstruction insurance coverage above $100 per mailpiece is not available. The mailer should not attempt to purchase additional document insurance, because additional document insurance is void.
4. The Postal Service insures "negotiable items" (defined by postal regulations as items that can be converted to cash without forgery), currency, or bullion up to a maximum of $15 per mailpiece.
5. The Postal Service does not provide coverage for consequential losses due to loss, damage, or delay of Priority Mail Express items or for concealed damage, spoilage of perishable items, and articles improperly packaged or too fragile to withstand normal handling in the mail. Coverage, terms, and limitations are subject to change. For additional limitations and terms of coverage, consult the DMM, which is available at pe.usps.com.

Indemnity Claims (Loss, Damage or Missing Contents): Either the mailer or the addressee may file an indemnity claim for loss, damage or missing contents. The claimant may submit the claim online at usps.com, or by mail, for more information see Publication 122, Domestic Claims, Customer Reference Guide. The timelines for claims are as follows: claims for loss - no later than 7 days but no later than 60 days after the date of mailing; claims for damage or missing contents - immediately but no later than 60 days from the date of mailing. Retain the original USPS retail receipt or eReceipt/electronic receipt for claims purposes. For claims involving damage or missing contents, also retain the article, container, and packaging for Postal Service inspection when requested.

Refund of Postage and Fees (Service Performance): If delivery of a Priority Mail Express (PME) item does not meet the scheduled delivery commitment(s), online and commercial customers may submit a refund request by visiting USPS.com. Retail customers may submit a refund request either online at USPS.com or at retail locations. Refund requests for postage must be submitted no later than 2 days and no later than 30 days from the date of the mailing. Extra Services fees refund requests must be submitted no later than 30 days and no later than 60 days from the date of mailing. Each tracking number can only be submitted once for all applicable refunds. Refund requests for PME or PME with Extra Services must be combined into a single submission.

Thank you for choosing Priority Mail Express service.

Money-back Guarantee: If the mailer submits an item at a designated USPS® Priority Mail Express® acceptance location on or before the specified deposit time, the Postal Service will deliver or attempt delivery to the addressee or agent before the applicable delivery date and time. Mailer may request the addressee's signature from the addressee upon delivery of the item by checking the "signature required" box at the time of mailing. If the Postal Service does not deliver or attempt delivery by the specified time and the mailer files a valid claim for a refund, the Postal Service will refund the postage, unless an exception applies. See Mailing Standards of the United States Postal Service, Domestic Mail Manual (DMM®) 604.9.5.5 which is available at pe.usps.com.

Not: The Postal Service does not offer money-back guarantee for military or DPO shipments delayed due to customs inspections or the item was destined for an APO/FPO/DPO that was closed on the intended day of delivery or the delay was caused by one of the situations in DMM 604.9.5.5. Consult USPS.com or your local Post Office for information on delivery commitments and Priority Mail Express Military Service (PMEMS). For details, see DMM 703.2.6, which is available at pe.usps.com.

When a mailer submits a Priority Mail Express item requiring a signature and the Postal Service cannot deliver the item on the first attempt, the Postal Service leaves a notice for the addressee. If the addressee does not claim the item within 5 calendar days, the Postal Service returns the item to the sender at no additional charge.

Insurance coverage: The Postal Service provides insurance only in accordance with postal regulations in the DMM, which is available at pe.usps.com. The DMM sets forth the specific types of losses that are covered, the limitations on coverage, terms of insurance, conditions of payment, and adjudication procedures. Certain items are not insurable. The DMM consists of federal regulations, and USPS personnel are not authorized to change or waive these regulations or grant exceptions. A mailer who requires information on Priority Mail Express insurance may contact the Postal Service before submitting an item. Limitations prescribed in the DMM provide, in part, that:

1. Insurance coverage extends to the actual value of the contents at the time of mailing or the cost of repairs, not to exceed the insured limit for the item.

2. The Postal Service insures the contents of Priority Mail Express "merchandise" items (with "merchandise" defined by postal regulations) against loss, damage, or missing contents. The Postal Service includes coverage up to $100 per mailpiece at no additional charge. Additional merchandise insurance up to $5,000 per mailpiece may be available for purchase. Additional insurance for Priority Mail Express items is not available unless a signature is required.

After printing this label:

1. Use the 'Print' button on this page to print your label to your laser or inkjet printer.
2. Fold the printed page along the horizontal line.
3. Place label in shipping pouch and affix it to your shipment so that the barcode portion of the label can be read and scanned.

Warning: Use only the printed original label for shipping. Using a photocopy of this label for shipping purposes is fraudulent and could result in additional billing charges, along with the cancellation of your FedEx account number.

Use of this system constitutes your agreement to the service conditions in the current FedEx Service Guide, available on fedex.com. FedEx will not be responsible for any claim in excess of $100 per package, whether the result of loss, damage, delay, non-delivery, misdelivery, or misinformation, unless you declare a higher value, pay an additional charge, document your actual loss and file a timely claim. Limitations found in the current FedEx Service Guide apply. Your right to recover from FedEx for any loss, including intrinsic value of the package, loss of sales, income interest, profit, attorney's fees, costs, and other forms of damage whether direct, incidental, consequential, or special is limited to the greater of $100 or the authorized declared value. Recovery cannot exceed actual documented loss. Maximum for items of extraordinary value is $1,000, e.g. jewelry, precious metals, negotiable instruments and other items listed in our Service Guide. Written claims must be filed within strict time limits, see current FedEx Service Guide.
